Review By Christina Lewis

With a surprising twist this story of a special friendship is told by the point of view of the dog. Lola is his best friend, but she wasn't always happy. Something happened to her and she needed a guide dog. At first Lola just sat around a lot and didn't want to go outside, but the dog coaxed her out and gradually Lola became interested in life again. A touching story about the special bond between a person and a guide dog. (Ages 4-8)
